

In Re Bennethum
Del. Supr., 278 A.2d 831 (1971)

Disciplinary Rules/Issues: Reinstatement to practice

Nature of Case:

Petition for reinstatement as a member of the Bar of Delaware. Petitioner was disbarred on May 27, 1960, In Re Bennethum, Del. Supr., 161 A.2d 229 (1960), petition for reargument denied, 162 A.2d 429 (1960), because he was found guilty of having given false testimony and introducing fabricated evidence in his criminal trial in the Federal District Court for the willful failure to file income tax returns.

Action Taken by the Court:

The Court found that the Petitioner had demonstrated sufficient contrition and atonement to justify his reinstatement as a member of the Bar and ordered Petitioner's name reinstated to the roll of attorneys for the Bar of Delaware.
